PARTNER ALLIANCE PRESENTS:
"ALL THINGS DYNAMIC" CONFERENCE 9/18/08

Detroit, Michigan August 27, 2008.... The Partner Alliance for Microsoft Dynamics will offer All Things Dynamics, a full-day conference featuring workshops on Microsoft Dynamics software solutions and hosting alternatives Thursday, September 18 from 8 a.m. - 3:30 p.m. in the Microsoft offices at 1000 Town Center, Southfield. Matt Roush, Technology Editor of The Great Lakes IT Report (GLITR) will be the keynote speaker. His topic is Michigan's Tech-Based Economic Development: Our State's Hidden Good News. For a schedule, complete listing of the workshop topics, or to register for the conference go to www.PartnerAlliance.net. For further information, call 248.596.9138.

"In these difficult economic times, business owners and executives owe it to themselves to take advantage of this rare opportunity to spend the day meeting with Microsoft Dynamics experts to learn how these powerful business tools can help them to drive their business success," said Brian Demoe, Atrio Systems Managing Partner.

The conference includes workshops on Microsoft Dynamics SL, Microsoft Dynamics NAV, Microsoft Dynamics GP, Microsoft Dynamics CRM, Microsoft Exchange and Microsoft SharePoint and Hosting. "We'll have something for everyone at this event," said Tom Jablonski of Vantage Solutions. "Whether you're an experienced Microsoft Dynamics customer or brand new to the products and concepts, we have a series of workshops designed just for you. Everyone is welcome."

All Things Dynamics is sponsored by Platinum Sponsors Avalara and Scribe. Gold Sponsors are Aim Computer Solutions, Inc; Equisys Document Dynamics and Graphicolor. Go to www.PartnerAlliance.net for further information.
